October 30, 2007

As Veterans Day approaches, it is important that we recognize the many contributions that Veterans have made for our great country over the years. We owe them many of the freedoms that we have today, and they truly deserve the honor and respect of their fellow Americans. Whatever gesture – large or small – could make a difference as we pay tribute to the sacrifices they have made and continue to make for our country.

I THEREFORE MOVE THAT, on behalf of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, I request that in honor of Veterans Day, the Los Angeles County
